

The W. Va. Board of Directors convened on Sept 5, 2010 at 8:30 am at the request of Lewis Saunders regarding the title of Action Championship title of West Virginia. The Board consisting of Marvin Barker, President, Jim Fields, Vice-President, Tom Bergquist, Sect-Treasurer, John Roush, At large delegate, and Dave Hines, Bulletin Editor. Lewis requested he be given the title back as he paid his dues in advance and that rule was announced at the start of the tournament. The Board interviewed Matt Richardson, the TD for the Action tournament who stated he did announce that WVCA membership was required to obtain the title Action. Several additional people were interviewed by Board, several of whom stated they heard the announcement made. One of the Board members, John Roush, stated he did not hear, but at the time he was not paying attention to the TD. After discussing the situation, a vote was take and it 5-0 in favor giving Lewis the title back. This issue is now moot. End of Story!!
