1953 CHESS CONGRESS A SUCCESS

Under perfect weather conditions, our 1953 annual State Congress started at Huntington YMCA dining room, soon after 2 P. M., Saturday afternoon, September 5.

William F. Hartling as T.D. (he also competed) promulgated necessary regulations concerning moves per hour, adjudication of unfinished games, etc.

Particularly gratifying was the championship round. Twelve entries including performers from former open and junior events, as well as a newcomer (Mr. Provins of Morgantown) with the "old Guard" rounded out an even dozen. While some contestants, especially Foy and Morgan, were noticeably below usual form, (perhaps due to lack of practice), the efforts of the Marples boys (Bruce is still under 21), and Donald Burdick (not yet seventeen) were especially commendable. "Time trouble" was not a problem, and it was necessary to submit but one game for adjudication.

Dr. Werthammer handily won the championship—score, 6-0.

The "open" was interesting, at least to the players, and was won by our veteran President Rudd T. Neel, score, 6-0. An impressive second was scored by H. H. Gregg. Eight players took part, and Keefer of Charleston, as well as Brumfield of South Point, Ohio, were new faces to the group, and perhaps novices in tournament play. (To Dr.

H. E. Burdick and Mr. Gregg the players are grateful for the supply of ice available.) The two events just mentioned were played according to a 6-round Swiss system.

Of the four juniors that played a double round robin, Bill Michael was the only contestant with previous big time tournament experience. He made second place, succumbing to Howard Cartee (also of Huntington) who achieved the winning honors. Young Philip Crosby, of Huntington, was compelled to forfeit most of his games. Jack Abraham made a creditable showing. He is 10 years old.

Certificates especially designed, prepared and donated by Campbell Neel were awarded to the winners and runners-up in each event and have already been handed to Messrs. Werthammer, Hurt, DuVall, Neel, Gregg, Cartee, and Michael. Your editor, being a contestant, was unable to spot "highlights" of our meet. Dr. Werthammer, our games editor, as you may see has spent many hours winnowing the recorded results.

PRESENTATION OF AWARDS

At the conclusion of the tournament, 2 P. M., Sept. 7, President Neel called members and guests to order, and requested Dr. Hayward to distribute awards.

Certificates were awarded to Dr. Werthammer of Huntington as State Champion and to DuVall and Hurt of Charleston, who were tied for second place.

In the Junior Championship event Howard Carlee and William Michael, both of Huntington, received certificates as winner and runner-up.

Mr. Neel of Huntington won the "Open" event and received a certificate, as did the runner-up, Mr. H. H. Gregg.

Dr. Werthammer accepted as the champion a cuff-link set donated by M. D. Angel Co. of Huntington. DuVall received a plastic Florentine chess set and Hurt a traveling clock donated by the Stevens Drug Store. Trophies in the form of suitably engraved figurine and cups were presented to H. H. Gregg, Howard Carlee and William Michael. They were donated by the Hobby Sport Shop and John F. Lieber Jeweler and Engraver of Huntington.

Token remembrances in the form of neckties (donated by Collins and Childers) were presented to our Tournament Director and Mr. Lauer representing the YMCA.

MINUTES OF THE ANNUAL BUSINESS MEETING

The annual business meeting of the West Virginia Chess Association came to order at 9:45 A. M. September 7.

In the absence (due to poor health) of President Harlow Warren of Beckley, Vice-President Edward M. Foy took the chair. (Dr. Hayward acted as recording secretary.) The minutes of last meeting having already been published, were not read. The Treasurer's report was read and accepted with approval. It appears in this issue of the Bulletin.

The following officers for the coming year were unanimously elected: Rudd T. Neel, Huntington, President; Allen H. DuVall, Charleston, Vice-President; William F. Hartling, St. Albans, Secretary - Treasurer; Edward M. Foy, Charleston, Public Representative.

The chair was then relinquished to President Neel. Various methods of increasing the membership of the Association as well as interest in chess in the state were discussed. It was decided to continue the present staff in charge of the Bulletin.

Voices of thanks were enthusiastically extended to each and every one having to do with making our congress a success, and included the local merchants who had contributed prizes, the YMCA for donating playing room and excellent service, (Mr. Charles Lauer was in faithful attendance at all sessions); and to Mr. Hartling, who so ably directed this meet, successfully repeating his efforts at Beckley in 1952. Meeting adjourned at 10:14 A. M. Respectfully submitted, V. S. Hayward

GAMES SECTION

Werthammer's win from Hartling was highly praised because it terminated in a blaze of sacrifices and two pretty double checks with many of the mating pieces "en prise".

Hurt demonstrates against Burdick his elegant and deep resourcefulness in conjuring a beautiful trap.

Burdick's King Gambit proved devastating. Unfortunately he blundered at the end against Foy who got away with perpetual check. What he can do with it against weak resistance he showed to Sayre—in the shortest game of the tournament. Sayre defeated Morgan with an inexorable and exact attack.

Hendricks handily refuted an original but incorrect plan of Provins, a newcomer to West Virginia's tournament chess. His style is vigorous and refreshing.

DuVall won from Foy, who was not as tough as usual. Still, the pawn advance reminds one of a pretty Philidor play.

DuVall and Hurt against each other played a very dry and unexciting draw. This is quite unusual for them. The selection, therefore, is a game which they played before the tournament and which illustrates better their sharp way of playing.

Dr. S. Werthammer
vs. W. F. Hartling

Queen's Gambit Declined
1 P-Q4, N-KB3; 2P-QB4, P-K3; 3N-QB3, P-Q4; 4 B-N5, B-K2; 5 P-K3, P-B3; 6 N-B3, QN-Q2; 7 Q-B2, P-KR3; 8B-R4, O-O; 9 PXP, KRP; 10B-Q3

After a standard opening White has the pleasant choice between the stock minority attack, starting with O-O and QR-N, or a K-side attack, after O-O and QR-K—in each case with a more comfortable game than Black.

10 . . . . P-QN4
Quite unexpected.
11 O-O, B-N2; 12P-QR3, P-R3; 13P-QN4

As Black played, his QBP is permanently fixed. Better for him would have been 11 . . . . P-R3 and 12 . . . . P-QB4 with good chances despite the isolated QP. From now on White's plan is easy—to pile up on the QB file, to exert pressure on the backward QBP, and to tie down many black pieces. If Black is tied up in defense on the Q wing, White will jump the black K with good chances because of his greater mobility. The same idea is good if Black opens the QR file, as he later does.

13 . . . . P-QR4; 14Q-N2, Q-N3; 15 P-K4
To exchange the black-squared B, to weaken these squares in Black's camp.

15 . . . . P-KP; 16 NXP, NXN; 17 RxB, KR-K; 18 B-R4, N/5-B3; 19 QR-B, N-Q4; 20 B-N, PXP; 21 PXP, R-R5; 22 KR-K, KR-R; 23 Q-B2
Black will never get the QNP. His demonstration on the Q wing weakened the center and his K wing too much.

23 . . . . N/2-B3
On P-N3, simply Q-Q2 followed by Q-R6 and N-N5.
24 BxN, NxB; 25 R-K7, K-B; 26 QR-K, B-B;

The beginning of a combination to catch the white KR. Black had to forsee the following complications.
27 Q-N3

And this is the beginning of a mating attack.
27 . . . . B-K3; 28 R/LxR!
Very obvious, as PXR cannot be played by Black because of QxP and mate is unavoidable.

28 . . . . R-K6
Black counted on this move. N-Q4 instead of 29RxxPch! KxR; 30 RxBP! QxR; 31 N-K5ch and wins the Q.
29 KxPch!! KxR
If K-N; 31 R-K8 mate.
ch!, K moves; 32 Q-B7 with mate to follow.
30 N-K5ch, K-B

If K-N: 31 R-K8 mate 31 N-N6ch
1 N-N6ch

White announces mate in four.
1... K-N: 32 R-K8dich, K-R2;
3 R-R8ch, R-K: 43 N-B8 mate.

I. F. Hurt, Jr.
vs. D. Burdick

Regular Defense

1 P-K4, P-Q3; 2P-Q4, N-KB3; 3N-
2B3, Q-N-Q2; 4 P-KB4, P-K4; 5
2P-P, P-P: 6 P-P, Q-NXP; 7Q-Qch,
K-K; 8 B-KB4, N-N3; 9 O-O-Qch,
B-Q2?

In this type of "exchange" variation of the K-Indian Defense, Black has nothing to fear despite his inability to castle and White's rapid development. He must not let his QB be pinned and he has to restrain the white KP. The right move here is N-Q2.

10 KN-K2??

A diabolic conception. Off-hand it looks like a severe mistake to let the QB be exchanged despite the developing move. If it ever comes to an end-game, White is riddled with weaknesses.

10... NKB: 11 N-N, B-B4

Black bites. Better is P-KN4 followed by B-N2.

12 P-KN3, P-B3?

Black still does not see the danger. Instead K-K would have equalized (after 13 N/4-Q5, N-N: 14N-N, B-N3; 15N-XB, R-P-N: 16 P-QR3).
13 P-K5!
The winning move.
13... B-K6ch; 14 K-N, B-N: 15
P-N, B-K4; 16 P-P, B-P/2; 17
B-R3, Resigns.
The point of the magnificent trap set by 10 KN-K2: Black loses a piece.

D. Burdick
vs. E. M. Foy
King's Gambit

F-KB3, N-KB3; 4P-K5, N-N5?
The move is N-R4.

5 P-KR3, KN-R3; 6 P-Q4, P-Q4;
7B-P, B-K2; 8 B-Q3; B-R5ch

This exchange of developed pieces only benefits White.

9 NxB, Q-N6ch; 10 P-N3, Q-K2; 11
Q-R5, Q-N5ch; 12P-B3

Black's Q excursions do not help his completely backward game. But here White should generously throw in the P. Much more forceful, therefore, is N-B3 and after Q-NP simply K-Q2 with an overwhelming position.

12... Q-NP; 13 O-O, B-K3

Black, of course, cannot take the R yet because he quickly loses after
B-N followed by Q-Pch and Q-B6ch.
14 B-N, P-K3; 15 B-B5, R-N: 16P-N4,
N-Q2; 17 B-XB, O-O-O; 18 Q-BP,
Q-XR

Seemingly Black wiggled out, but he succumbs because of the weakness of his first 2 ranks.

19 B-Xch, K-N: 20 P-K6, Q-N7; 21
P-K7, Q-K7; 22 P-R (Q)ch, R-XQ;
23 Q-K6

Unnecessary. Q-B8 wins at once.
23... Q-Q6; 24 Q-K7??

A regrettable oversight. Instead, K-N2. Black must have sensed this blunder, or he would have resigned long ago.
25... Q-N6ch. Drawn

D. Burdick
vs. P. A. Sayre

King's Gambit

1 P-K4, P-K4; 2 P-KB4, P-P; 3 N-
KB3, N-QB3; 4 B-B4, B-B4

Donating White a tempo.

5 P-Q4, B-N3; 6 B-P, N-KB3?

KN-K2 followed by P-Q4 was necessary, though White retains an overwhelming position.

7 P-K5, N-KN

And here Black could try to fight
it out by P-Q4.

8 P-B3, KN-K2; 9 N-N5, Resigns.
Black's position is hopeless. If 9... O-O, 10 Q-R5.

P. A. Sayre
vs. C. T. Morgan

Nimzowitch Defense

1 P-Q4, N-KB3; 2 P-QB4, P-K3; 3
N-QB3, B-N5; 4 P-K3, P-B4; 5 N-B3,
P-Q4; 6 B-Q3, N-B3; 7 O-O, B-P-P;
8 K-P-P, O-O; 9 B-B4

Unusual, but good. One would expect B-N5.

9... P-QN3; 10 R-B, B-N2; 11
P-QR3, B-N

We would prefer B-K2.

12 R-B, P-P; 13 B-P, N-Q4; 14 B-N,
Q-XB; 15 Q-Q3

Black has succeeded in exchanging the white KB. He actually has the better B, which controls the square in front of the isolated QP. Still, White's mobility and attacking chances are far superior. Of course, if an endgame should ensue, Black would have the better position.

15... KR-Q

QR-Q is preferable.

16 N-N5, P-B4; 17 Q-R3, P-KR3;
18N-B3, R-Q2

If the R were on KB, Black could play R-B3 followed by R-N3, and the R stands well for defense and attack alike. Now it has to go through contortions to defend the K wing.

19... N-K5, R-K2

Or NXP.

20N-N!

A very fine move. Despite the reduction of material which would impair White's attack, the exchange permanently secures the important square K5 for the white KB.

20... B-N: 21 B-K5, K-R2; 22
P-B4, R-Q; 23 KR-B, B-N2; 24 Q-N3

White conducts the attack with great finesse. One notes that he does not remove the QR to the K-wing.
This would give Black chances on the QB file.

24... R/1-Q2; 25 P-KR4, Q-N4; 26
P-N4, Q-Q4

Black is unable to undertake anything.

27 P-R5, K-N; 28 Q-N6, R-KB2; 29

R-KN3, K-B; 30 Q-R7, K-K; 31 R-
B2, Q-K5; 32 R/3-QB3, R-P
Desperation.
33Q-N8ch, R-B; 34 Q-Pch, K-Q; 35
B-B7 mate.

G. Hendricks
vs. R. Provins

Sicilian Defense

1 P-K4, P-QB4; 2 N-KB3, P-Q3;
3 P-Q4, P-P; 4 NXP, N-KB3; 5
N-QB3, N-B3; 6 B-K3, P-KN3; 7
B-K2, B-N2; 8 N-N3, P-QR3; 9 O-O,
Q-B2; 10 P-KB4, O-O; 11 P-QR3,
B-R3

Up to here everything was standard. Black now evolves an original but bad plan.

12 Q-K, P-K4; 13 Q-R4, N-KR4?

This loses in short order. K-N2 followed by N-KN would give battle, though in the wrong place: in the Sicilian Black's chances are on the Q wing.
14 B-N, P-P; 15 B-BP, B-B; 16
R-XB, P-XB; 17 N-Q5, Q-Q; 18 N-B6ch,
K-R; 19QXP, Resigns.

A. DuVall
vs. E. M. Foy

Ruy Lopez

1 P-K4, P-K4; 2 N-KB3, N-QB3; 3
B-N5, P-QR3; 4 B-N, Q-P-B; 5 N-B3,
B-KN5; 6 P-KR3, B-R4?

This loses the first P.

7 P-KN4, B-N3; 8 NXP, B-B4; 9
Q-K2, N-K3; 10 P-Q3, Q-Q3; 11
N-B4, Q-B3; 12 B-R3, B-N5; 13
P-K5, Q-R5; 14 O-O-O, B-N: 15
P-XB, N-Q4; 16K-N2, O-O-O; 17 P-
B4, P-KB4; 18 N-Q2, Q-K2; 19 N-N3,
P-B4.

This loses the second P.

20 B-P, Q-K3; 21 Q-B3, P-N3; 22
B-R3, K-N; 23 P-B4, N-K2; 24 B-N,
Q-XB; 25 P-Q4

The quiet attack by White's advancing pawn-roller is very pleasing.
25... Q-N5; 26 Q-QB3, Q-R5; 27
P-Q5, KR-K; 28 N-Q4, K-N2; 29
PXP

Black loses the third pawn and the game.
29 . . . B-R4; 30 QR-KN, Resigns.

A Duvall vs J. Hurt
French Defense

1P-K4, P-K3; 2P-Q4, P-Q4; 3N-Q2, P-KB4

A special variation against N-Q2 which seems to be quite good.

4P-K5, P-QB4; 5P-QB3, N-QB3; 6B-N5, Q-N3; 7BxNch, PxB; 8N-K2, B-R3; 9N-B4, K-Q2; 10N-B3

Much more aggressive is Q-R5, which gives good attacking chances. If then N-R3; 11N-B3, P-N3; 12Q-R4 with advantage, as N-KP1 threatens.

10 . . . N-R3; 11N-N5, R-K, 12Q-N3

Q-R5 is still preferable. The threat would be N-KP, R-N3; 13NxR, KxN; 14Q-K8ch and the KR is lost.

12 . . . PxB; 13QxQ, PxB; 14PxB, P-B4

Black has the better endgame because of his Q-side Pawns and the two Bs.

15B-K3, N-N5; 16P-KR3

Loss of time 0-0-0 is better.

16 . . . NxB; 17PxB, P-KR3; 18N-B7, R-KN; 19N-N6, R-QR; 20NxBch
There is no choice, as P-KN3 is answered by K-K1

20 . . . KRxN; 21N-Q6, P-KRB5
Opens up the position. Black's R5 will go to town while White's are asleep.

22QxP, BxP; 23PxB, R-B7; 24P-N7, QR-KB; 25 0-0-0, BxP!

Very beautiful despite the plus. While succumbs to an attack on the seventh rank.

26Nx3, R-Bel; 27K-N, R/1-B7; 28P-QN3, R-N7ch; 29K-R, KxPch; 30K-N, R/B7-N7ch, 31K-B, KxP/7; 32K-N, R/N7-N7ch; 33K-B, R-B7ch; 34K-N, R/R7-N7ch; 35K-R, KxP; 36N-Q6, R/6-N7;

P-K7 at once wins. If then R/Q-Q, KN, R-Q6.
37N-K4, P-K7!; 38 Resigns.

EDITORIAL

In the interest of a larger active membership, we are enclosing a return post card to you and asking these questions:

1. Have we your correct address?
2. Are you receiving the Bulletin regularly?
3. Do you wish to continue receiving it?
4. Have you paid annual dues of $2.00?
5. Have you questions or comments?

It is suggested to our active members that they send to their playing acquaintances a similar self addressed postal. Many, as you know, are merely deferring payment of their dues. We receive a large number of publications through exchange. Below is a partial list of same. Any of these are available to members upon request.

A NEW CHESS BOOK

Edward Foy submits a review of "The Art of the Checkmate", by Georges Renaud and Victor Kahn, (Simon and Schuster, 630 5th Avenue, New York City, Price $3.50), "a study of chess mating patterns. The authors, both former French Champions, have listed 23 different Typical Mates, along with some 5 Picturesque Mates. Eighty illustrative games, mostly short, and 45 end-games show the student how to recognize and apply these motifs."

PAST TOURNAMENTS

Donald Byrne, 23, of Brooklyn, won the annual National Open championship held at Milwaukee in August, beating Dr. Max Pavey, also of Brooklyn, by one-half point in the very last round of play. Tied and closely grouped prize winners in this well-attended event (182 were present) were Horowitz, Rossolimo, Sherwin, and Cross. Among the fourteen scoring 8½ points were Evans, !Bisquier, Santasiere, Dr. Mengarini, Shainswit, Dake and Berliner. Detailed report with tabulated scores will soon appear in Chess Life.

This publication will no doubt give details of the results of the U. S. Junior Championship, held at Kansas City, Mo., also in August. This event was won by S. Yarmak. There were 34 contenders.

In the U. S. candidates tournament, held in Philadelphia September 11-20, Arthur Bisquier won first place.

Our champion, Dr. Werthammer, plans being in Morgantown on professional business late in October. If at all possible he hopes to renew acquaintance with chess friends (whom he numbers by the dozen) in Buckhannon and Wheeling as well as the college town. Your editor expects to accompany him for the improvement of chess morale—if not for comedy relief.

THE TRI-STATE MEETING

Mr. S. R. Owens, President of the Ohio Chess Association, recently favored your editor with salient facts concerning this important tournament.

1. Place: Youngstown, O., YMCA.
2. Date: Saturday and Sunday, November 7 and 8. (Registration closes noon Saturday, November 7.)
3. Events: (a) Championship, including champions and runners-up from Ohio, Pennsylvania, and West Virginia. (b) Junior champions and runners-up from the same states.

No entry fees in either of these two Round Robin events. (c) The Tri-State Open—come one, come all—$2.00 entry fee. Five round Swiss System. This popular tournament may have to be conducted in 2 sections if more than 32 players (may such optimism be rewarded) enter. Wm. Byland, who did such fine work at Pittsburgh last November, will direct.

Mr. Norton F. McKinney, 1670 Bancroft, Youngstown, Ohio, promises personal attention to hotel reservations. (YMCA may have a few rooms available on Saturday night). "The Tod" and other nearby hotels are mentioned favorably; the Wick Motel is considered a very pleasant motor court.
West Virginia, we hope will be well represented.

ADDED NOTE

President Neel, in accordance with the Association's wishes, expressed at the business meeting, appointed a committee to discuss a constitution: John F. Hurt, Jr., Charleston, Chairman. Harlow Warren, Beckley and Paul Sayre, Huntington.
