Old Business: The Bulletin as usual was discussed and it was mentioned what a superb job was done during the past year under the direction of Dennis Funkhouser.

Andy Gamber said he should have no difficulty this coming year and that he had a good printing contact. John Dudley suggested that one person from each area be responsible to send good games to the Editor.

Joe Barker moved that each major area have a volunteer representative to assist the Editor with news and games (cross-tabled, typed and annotated). These volunteer representatives are to be called Area Associate Editors. Motion passed.

In connection with the above motion it was moved that the following areas be designated and persons appointed:

Motion passed.

It was moved and seconded that the President appoint someone to review, rewrite the Constitution and submit it to the Executive Board before the next WVCA meeting and submitted to the membership at that time for approval. Motion passed.

Joe Barker volunteered for the above and was appointed.

While the final outcome of this match is not particularly surprising, the manner in which it was accomplished is. In addition to being an "away" match, the WVU players each conducted two games simultaneously at a time limit of Game/1 hour! And as the game scores reveal, the match was not really as close as the final score indicates!!!

For several years the Chess House has been my only business, and a profitable one at that. I have recently become involved in real estate and cattle buying. Since my land and cattle transactions are expanding I am no longer able to devote full time to the Chess House.

Hence, F O R S A L E :

The Chess House is the winning combination of a Retail Store, Mail Order Chess Discounts, and a Chess Club.

Greetings Dennis:

Thank you for your reply and other information...

I hope to get the chess players here organized officially with both the WVCA and USCF. We do not have any USCF rated players, however, there are several good players who are engrossed with chess on a personal level. I'll contact Mr Morrison in regards to becoming affiliated with them.

I have followed the activities of the WVCA through the Charleston newspaper. Mostly to see how strong the WV players are and who is winning what...

We have approximately twenty steady players in our club with usually thirty entrants whenever we hold tournaments. We played a team of eight in December from West Liberty State College. We won 7-1 but don't fear us from that record. We would surely have big trouble out of your team with six Class A players, nonetheless we are looking forward to playing you. Hopefully we can make arrangements for this match next month. Let me know what days would best suit your team and I'll have our Recreation Director send you an invitation. I should advise you to make two choices just in case there is something already planned for/on your first choice...

Always,

Ronnie T Williams

Thanks to the diligent efforts of WVCA President Dennis E Funkhouser the arrangements were consummated and on 25 Mar 78 a team representing the Charleston Chess Club journeyed to Moundsville to challenge the W V Penitentiary chess team. With several of their stronger players unable to participate because of visitation day, the Penitentiary squad dropped the match 1-19. But as WV co-champion Funkhouser will attest, it wasn't easy! Representing the Penitentiary were (in board order): Ron Williams, Donald Renaud, Donald Bailey, Romeo Vance, Richard Marks, Clarence Scott, James Parsons, Walter Collins, Herb Turner, and Melvin Lambert. Playing for Charleston CC were (again in board order): Dennis Funkhouser, John Roush, Robert Bonwell, John W Dudley, David Marples, Carl Kiser, Ted Quast, Philip Lewis, Andrew Glancy, and Thomas Roush.

There is a great deal of interest in chess among the inmates and any club or team interest in scheduling a match or donating equipment or books (the Penitentiary has 1 chess book) should contact Ronnie Williams at the address given above.

Following is a game from the 25 Mar 78 match.

Tournament Director: John Everett Roush

The 1978 edition of the Spring Open (No Prisoners) attracted seven fewer entrants than the 1977 event but was nevertheless an exciting tournament. After the penultimate round, seven players were tied for the lead at 3-1 and there was the possibility of eight players tying for first place with identical 3½-1½ records! Decisive results were obtained on the top four boards in round five, however, and there was "only" a three-way for the top spot.

State Co-Champion Paul E Harless and State Junior Champion Mark S Hathaway shared top honors with 4-1 scores (+3, -0, =2). Despite having their tournament activity curtailed recently, Paul and Mark played solid, enterprising chess, were never in any danger of losing during any of their games, and rightfully deserved their accolades. David Hansen, Andrew J Glancy, Brett Thompson, and Joe Carico shared the under-1600 prize.

The following four struggle from round three is typical of the many hard-fought games in this tournament:

MARK HATHAWAY PRESENTS...

Here's a good position to study. It is from the 1977 West Virginia Championship, round 5 Jeff Ashley versus Paul Harless. (Jeff annotated this game in the Jan '78 WVCA Bulletin) In the position diagrammed at the left, White (Ashley) has just played 42 Kh2 (after 41...Rg8+) and proposed a draw. After more than twenty minutes thought, Harless accepted. However, Black seems to win after 42...Qe4. For example: 43 f3 Qf3 44 Rb7+ Kd6 45 Rb6+ Kc7 46 Be5+ Bd6! or 46 Rc6+ Kc6 47 Qe6+ Bd6+! If 43 f4 then 43...Rg4 and there are three main possibilities:

- A. 44 Bf6? Qf3 and the White Queen is blocked from e6.
- B. 44 Rb7+ Kc6 45 Rb6+ Kc7 46 Be5+ Bd6!!
- C. 44 h5 Rh4+ 45 Kg3 Rh1!! with the ideas of 46...Bh4 Mate or 46...Rg1 and mate follows 46 Rb7+ Kc6 47 Rb6+ Kc7 as in Variation B.

Give Joe Barker half credit for this analysis. He found the first couple of moves and ideas on White's defences. Only Variation C with the back-rank attack was missed within ten minutes after the game.

This twenty-player field was the largest to contest the Charleston Chess Club Championship since 1970 and overall was probably one of the strongest fields in Club history. No fewer than five current or former WV state champions were entered.

Bob Bonwell, who finished second in his qualifying section, swept the playoff quad to become 1978 Club Champion. Brent Haynes, who missed qualifying for the finals by a scant $\frac{1}{2}$ point, was named Junior Champion by posting a fine 6-3 score in Section B.

Games from this event will appear in this and future editions of the WVCA Bulletin.
