FROM THE PRESIDENT

When you members of the WVCA leaf through these coming pages I want you to take notice of some minor upgradings of the WVCA Bulletin, which we have been slipping by your noses in the last few issues. The first improvement is called a Declarations Page listing the officers and their addresses. Next are the smaller yet clearer diagrams made possible by our advertiser Copyaid Transfers who donated the diagram sets to us.

Advertiser? Yes indeed. Since 1923 when the first WVCA Bulletin came out there has been no advertising, now we have two paid advertisements currently running with prospects of more to come. For those of you who are curious, our rates are $10.00 per page per year or $5.00 per half-page. The rates were arbitrarily picked at random due to inexperience by yours truly. They seem to be equitable--we do not get much profit but they do not get much advertising.

Another startling innovation is the Grefe article--an honest-to-goodness nationally syndicated article. The WVCA has invested $20.00 of your dues in this article on a trial basis. We want to know from you people at the next WVCA Business Meeting by show of hands whether or not you feel it should be continued--so read it!

Last but not least let your little eyes lean to the bottom of the page. See that little number down there? That's a page number and each page has its very own number and to keep track of them all for you is a list of numbers at the front of this magazine called an index. Those of you--if any--who can not count will have to continue thumbing through the pages.

What all of this means to you, the member, is that we are classing this Bulletin up into a real-live publication. Classing it up to the point where it may take a publisher to put it out. Or someone with a little know-how and experience.

Since only one person, Andy Gamber, even wanted the job of Bulletin Editor, and the job is getting harder all the time, the membership should consider the idea of a publisher--a professional in this business, someone who would be paid to put this thing out right, on time and as often as you are willing to pay him to put it out. Face it people, a publisher may not know chess but it is either that or one of you face up to the task. We invite your thoughts on this in the form of letters to the Editor.

For several years the Chess House has been my only business, and a profitable one at that. I have recently become involved in real estate and cattle buying. Since my land and cattle transactions are expanding I am no longer able to devote full time to the Chess House.

Hence, F O R S A L E :

an interest in one of America's foremost Chess Businesses, the CHESS HOUSE.

The Chess House is the winning combination of a Retail Store, Mail Order Chess Discounts, and a Chess Club.

If you have $10,000.00 to invest in an established and ongoing business concern then I can promise you a present return in excess of 20% per year.

You must be willing to work (play chess with customers, etc.) at least three days per week at additional salary.

Dear Dennis:

Thanks for your prompt response. The initial orders have been small and since the practicability of this series of articles is based somewhat on the number of subscribers, I have decided to delay the first one. If the situation hasn't changed in about three weeks, I'll refund your $20. Otherwise, expect an article for your next issue.

Sincerely,
John Grefe

Give me an 'E' for effort! DEF
