EDITOR'S COLUMN

As you may have noticed there have been few bulletins this year. Because of circumstances beyond our control the CHESSMAN will no longer be the magazine in which our bulletin is published.

We received a CHESSMAN last November or December. We then took a poll to find out if it should be our regular magazine. Because of the time required for the poll we missed the January-February issue. We then received the March-April issue. I sent material for the May-June issue, only to find in mid-July (and not from the CHESSMAN editor) that the CHESSMAN had folded when its editor moved to South Carolina.

Fortunately, we have not actually lost money from our involvement with the CHESSMAN. The first issue was free, to let us see if we wanted to receive it regularly. The May-June issue for which we paid will in effect pay for the first issue. I have also instructed our secretary-treasurer to attempt to collect the money we paid for the May-June issue.

You could call this a boondoggle, a snapshu, or a blunder. I hope it never happens again.

Anyone having comments about the letter from Edmar Mednis may write to me or any of the other W.V.C.A. officers.

Dear Editor,

Many of you have received or read my letter of April 23 to USCF Voting Members re actions by the present USCF administration to prevent the publication of my articles in Chess Life. A substantial number of expressions of support and encouragement have been received by me and I am grateful for this. Still, this is not the reason for this letter.

The reason for this letter is the suggestion by Wyoming Delegate Marc Lynn that my "The Practical Endgame" column be offered to the various state and regional publications on a syndicated basis and at a modest fee. Mr. Lynn was enthusiastic about this proposal. I don't really know what to think. However, it does seem logical that I write to you and ask your reaction.

I could provide a column similar to what was published in Chess Life. The length would be about 2 "CL pages", the manuscript would be neatly typed (doublespace) and xeroxed, and I would of course supply the diagrams. To cover the technical expenses and leave some profit for me, I would charge $25.

Would you please let me know:

- (1) Are you interested?
- (2) If yes, how often would you like to receive it?
- (3) Do you prefer algebraic or descriptive notation?

Thank you.

Sincerely,

Edmar Mednis

International Chess Master
